Large Crowds at 3-day Event

Claresholm Easy Winner Carmangay Tournament

(By Carmangay Correspondent)

The Carmangay Lions sponsored a three-day baseball tournament on Aug. 8-9-10th, with eight teams participating, Claresholm, Vulcan, Picture Butte, Stavely, Brant, Daley Creek, Champion and Carmangay.

The venture was definitely a financial success for the club, with an exceptionally good attendance all three days.

Claresholm and Vulcan started off the tournament on Wednesday at 12:30 p.m. with Claresholm winning with a score of 19-2. Batteries: Claresholm—McDonald, McDonald; Vulcan—Dann, Kehr.

The second game, a more evenly contested game between Picture Butte and Stavely, ended in a victory for the former with a score of 5-1. Batteries: P.B., Malmberg, McKay; Stavely, Scott, McDonald.

The evening game between Picture Butte and Claresholm was won by Claresholm 8-7. Batteries: P.B., Watson, McKay; Claresholm, Glen, McDonald.

On the second day of the tournament Carmangay and Brant opened the day with a very one-sided game, Carmangay winning by a score of 16-0. Bob Shearer pitching an exceptionally good game allowing two hits and getting seven straight strike outs. Batteries: Carmangay, Shearer, McLeod; Brant, Wellman, Smith.

Champion then took on Daley Creek, defeating them 17-8. Batteries: Champion, Smith, Hagg; D.C., Slavich, Kuchera, Parker.

In the evening Champion and Carmangay played off, with an exceptionally large crowd in attendance. The game had to be called in the eighth inning due to darkness, by umpire Mel Friend, Carmangay coming out victorious with a score of 7-6. Batteries: Carmangay, Shearer, Goddinton, McLeod; Champion, Latiff, Smith, Siler, Pasoli, Hagg.

Then on Friday evening at 5:30, with a huge crowd present and all expecting to see a closely contested game, Claresholm defeated Carmangay 27-9, to win top honors in the tournament. Batteries: Claresholm, Glen, McDonald; Carmangay, Negrello, Shearer, Connors, G. Rhodes, McLeod.

Neighbors Fight Farm House Fire

Fire of undetermined origin caused heavy damage to the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Deal and family, six miles east and two miles south of Vulcan, on Tuesday at about 6 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Deal were away at the time and a farm employee working in the yard first noticed the fire, which evidently started in the back kitchen. Earl Deal, who lives across the road, also noticed the smoke at about the same time and the two men fought the blaze with buckets of water and extinguishers. Nearby neighbors rushed to the scene and the fire was eventually extinguished.

Damage to the back part of the house was heavy, and practically all the furniture in the house was ruined by smoke and heat.

Aqua Gala At Memorial Pool Wed., Aug. 22

The annual Aqua Gala at the Vulcan Memorial Swimming Pool will be held next Wednesday afternoon and evening, August 22.

Entries have already been received from most of the outside points which competed last year, when there were 102 entries—the largest of any swim meet in Southern Alberta.

This year's evening program has been streamlined to make it more interesting for the spectators and the recent addition of permanent flood-lights at the pool will make this possible.

Racing and diving events will be held at 1:30 in the afternoon and at 7:30 in the evening the finals of the main events will be held as well as an exhibition of diving, a water ballet and novelty numbers.

Monday of this week in preparation for the opening of the county schools.

It was decided that the school term would commence on Tuesday, Sept. 4.

A few teachers are still needed for various schools throughout the county and a complete list of the county teachers will be published as soon as it becomes available.

Instantly Killed In Car Accident

John Stormose, aged about 50, farm laborer of the Milo district, met instant death at about 7:30 p.m. on Saturday, Aug. 11 in a car accident.

He was driving west on the Milo road when his car, a 1935 Ford, evidently went out of control and into the ditch on the north side of the road, turning over. No one saw the accident happen, but occupants of the next car that came along the road notified William Burgess, near whose farm the accident occurred, and he phoned Dr. J. W. Tompkins and the R.C.M.P.

When the body of Stormose was removed from the car it was found that he had died instantly of a fractured neck. Coroner D. H. Russell of Carmangay investigated the accident and decided that no inquest would be necessary.

The deceased is believed to have a wife and child living in Edmonton. He had worked in the Milo

Latest Styles Displayed At County Fair Fashion Shows

Some 500 ladies attended Friday's Tea and Fashion Show at the Vulcan Armouries, when the latest in ladies and children's wearing apparel was shown through the courtesy of the Betty Ann Shoppe.

Using for their theme "How High the Moon" from the currently popular hit parade number, the stage and hall were decorated with golden paper moons, gay trellis work, interwoven with flowers and figures of pretty girls in pastel gowns.

Mrs. D. O. Jantzie, as a most capable and gracious commentator opened the afternoon's program by introducing the Princess of the Fair, Miss Barbara Fletcher of Brant, and her ladies-in-waiting. Tea was then served, following which Mrs. Helen Clark, accompanied by Mrs. S. Campbell, favored the gathering with a beautifully rendered vocal solo.

With Mrs. Campbell providing soft background music the models began displaying the latest in fall winter styles in dresses, sportwear, casuals and coats.

Togs for children created much comment as many mothers were watching for back-to-school wardrobes.

The youngsters who modelled, showed the latest fashions in night attire, dresses, boys pants and jackets and even the latest in parkas and the new winter jackets called "bush coats".

The teen-age clothes featured the latest in corduroys, sweaters and skirts, slacks suits, snow suits and girls bush coats, while the ladies showed smart dresses, suits and winter coats of cloth and fur. The fur coats were shown through the courtesy of the New York Furriers of Lethbridge and included the latest styles in Muskrat, Raccoon, Persian Lamb, Hudson

Little misses Marilyn and Margaret Joiner, Lyn Richardson, Myrna Jamison, Larry Northcott and Billy Shaw showed the newest fashions for "young fry" while Helen Richardson, Donna Rushfeldt, and Larlee Neville modelled teenage clothes.

Mrs. G. Seaman, Mrs. R. Weber, Mrs. K. Fisher, Mrs. J. Jamison and Mrs. D. McAfee proved neat models for the ladies' styles.

Owing to intermittent rain all day Saturday the attendance at the Tea and Ladies Fashion Show in the Armouries was only about half that of the previous day. Mrs. D. O. Jantzie kindly consented to be commentator for the second time and opened the afternoon show by introducing 12-year-old Barbara Fletcher, Princess of the County of Vulcan, and her ladies-in-waiting. Tea was served by members of the St. Aldhelm's Guild following which Mrs. Gordon Gardner sang "Shine On Harvest Moon", accompanied at the piano by Mrs. S. Campbell.

Mrs. S. Campbell again played soft music as a background while models crossed the stage, descending, and walked amongst the tea tables. During this time Mrs. Jantzie ably described the style and quality of each garment modelled.

The Fashion Show, staged through the courtesy of Queenie's Ladies Ready-to-Wear, of Vulcan, featured the latest in styles, shades and materials of dresses, suits, coats and lingerie, making up a most successful display. Models included, Mrs. Chester Rea, Mrs. Donald Walker, Mrs. W. S. Hill, Mrs. J. McIntosh, Miss F. Jackson, Mrs. Ralph Clark, Miss Delores Rittland, Mrs. D. McAfee and Miss Terry McAfee.

Fail To Notice Freight Train

Rail Crossing Accident at Carseland Takes 3 Lives

Three residents of Bowness were instantly killed on Sunday afternoon when their car was struck by an east-bound freight train at a railway crossing near Carseland, about 40 miles north of Vulcan.

Dead are Leslie Simm, 42; his nine-year-old son, Allen, and Robert G. Allan, 34. Mr. Simm and the boy were the husband and son of the former Addie Woodman of Vulcan, who, with her other children, was visiting relatives in Vulcan at the time of the accident.

The car was travelling slowly when it approached the crossing, according to eye witnesses of the tragedy, but the occupants were looking along the track in the other direction and evidently neither saw nor heard the train. The automobile was completely demolished.

Mr. Simm had resided in Calgary for 30 years. He was an employee of the 5th St. West liquor store in Calgary and during the war served five years in the R.C. A.F. service police. He is survived by his wife, Adeline (daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Woodman of Vulcan) and four children, the oldest 11 years and the youngest 10 months.

Interesting Visit With Park Guide

Mr. and Mrs. Caryl Jordan and family spent the week end at Glacier National Park. While there, they were invited to spend the evening with Jim Whitt, famous Montana guide, timber cruiser and government hunter.

Mr. Whitt is the author of five books and has spent 5 winters on radio broadcasts in the Eastern States. These broadcasts were some of his own poetry and outdoor life.

He has guided parties from all over the world. While government hunter he captured 113 live mountain lions, which have been shipped to zoos and circuses.

One of his books on wild life is being taught in American schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Jordan spent a very interesting evening listening to his stories and looking at his scrapbook containing many rare mountain scenes.

Big Event Successful Beyond Expectations

First County Fair Here Is Attended By Thousands; Will Be Annual Event

The first event of its kind in Western Canada, the Vulcan County Fair on August 10-11 was successful beyond expectations despite intermittent rain marring the Saturday program. Entries and crowds were greater than anticipated, and from the starting of the mile-long parade Friday afternoon until the closing dance Saturday night the excellent program ran smoothly.

Colorful Parade

Viewed by a crowd of over 4,000 the big parade contained over 100 entries. All entries were of a high standard and several were outstanding. Leading the parade as standard-bearer was Jack Deans, mounted on his prize Palomino stallion "Marjon" and flanked by riders on two more golden palominos. Following in a car was J. E. Carlson, chairman of the council of the County of Vulcan, escorted by Cpl. Jack Hurst of the R.C.M.P. The members of the county council and the secretary followed on an open drag drawn by a tractor.

A featured attraction of the parade and one that drew many favorable comments was the smartly uniformed Beisecker Lions Club Band, with some 35 bandmen led by three high-stepping drum majorettes.

Next came the Vulcan Lions Club float, showing two little girls in a miniature of the Memorial Swimming Pool. Enthroned on this float was Miss Barbara Fletcher, of Brant, the County Princess, accompanied by her four ladies-in-waiting, Miss Frances Versluys of Champion, Miss Marjorie Kurtz of Kirkcaldy, Miss Linda Lucas of Armada and Miss Noreen Nelson of Queenstown.

The Central Meat Market float was followed by the Vulcan Cub Pack and the children with their entries for the pet parade, then a group of beautiful saddle horses, four of which were owned by Erdman of Barons and the others from High River and Vulcan.

The prize-winning float in the community section, entered by the Red Cross and Berrywater Farmers' Union locals, was pulled by the beautiful show team of Clydesdale horses, in sparkling harness, owned and driven by A. A. Giles of the Vulcan district.

The Armada community float, featuring grains and flowers, and the Canadian Legion Cadets float were both colorful and drew applause. Decorated bicycles followed the Red Cross Society car, with Fleming's Groceries and Scales Motors float next in line. The International farm machinery section and Nash cars were followed by the Greenlee Motors of Champion float, and the Simpson and Son float was pulled by the big team of horses owned and driven by Tom Lucas.

"A" Company, Calgary Highlanders, which has platoons throughout the County displayed two Bren gun carriers, a signal truck and a six-pounder anti-tank gun. The Imperial Oil Co. float was followed by the two trucks of the Vulcan Fire Department.

The Massey-Harris pony chuckwagon led the Massey-Harris section and was an outstanding feature of the parade. The big chuckwagon was drawn by four Massey-Harris "pony" tractors with simulated horses' heads and all controlled from the driver's seat by "reins".

The John Deere farm machinery section, U.F.A. Co-op float and Cockshutt machinery section brought up the end of the parade.

One commercial float cooked and distributed "hot dogs" and another float distributed cellophane wrapped caramels to the children along the route.

The parade started at the Armouries and halted briefly at the main business intersection while County Chairman J. E. Carlson crowned Miss Barbara Fletcher as County Princess and presented her and the ladies-in-waiting with their awards.

First prize for floats went to the F.U.A. float entered by the Red Cross and Berrywater districts, second prize was won by the Armada community float and third prize by the Vulcan Canadian Legion Cadets float.

The parade was possibly the best ever held in Vulcan and a greater number of floats is already being planned for next year.

Excellent Exhibits
The Fair exhibits were displayed in the new wing of the Curling rink and fair officials were gratified with the number and quality of exhibits.

The flower section, with well over 400 exhibits, made up a beautiful display and the fancy work made up an extensive section of outstanding work. The art work was very good, although only some sixty entries were received. Displays remained open all day and late in the evening with large crowds viewing the exhibits. Comments were most favorable and indicated that another year the number of entries would be increased several times over, many not having realized just what comprised a fair.

Judges were Miss Newha of Calgary, District Home Economist and Miss E. Elders, teacher of Home Economy at the Olds School of Agriculture, for the fancy work school exhibits and Home baking; Hugh Michaels, district Agriculturist from Claresholm, for the vegetable and grain exhibits and Mrs. L. S. Willmore, member of the High River Art Club, who judged the art work. Miss Willmore commented on the high standard of the art work and made special mention of work exhibited by Mrs. Kunz of Arrowwood, a young displaced person. Miss Newha said, "The exhibits are excellent and show a very high standard. The quilts and tablecloths are exceptionally good, and the cookery was better than ever."

No entry fees were charged and no monetary prizes were awarded. The whole Fair was conducted as a community effort on a county-wide scale. Fair director, A. G. Saxby of Vulcan, advised that over 300 persons in the County had given unsparingly of their time in the organization and conducting of the Fair for one of the best examples of community co-operation that could be achieved, as was demonstrated by the number of entries in the Parade and Agricultural and Home crafts exhibitions, and by the smooth way in which all events were run off. The only near hitch was, that while provision was made for a big Fair the large crowds exceeded expectations and taxed the meal and lunch facilities of the town almost to the limit. The Fair this year was on an experimental basis, and many valuable lessons were learned. It is expected to be made an annual event. It was jointly sponsored by the Vulcan Lions Club and the St. Aldhelm's Anglican Ladies Aid.

Excellent Commercial Exhibits
The Commercial display section tried for the first time here, was in the spacious skating arena, with all possible space being used. It is estimated that well over $100,000 worth of merchandise was on display as a result. Considerable space in this section has already been booked for next year's Fair.

Pet Parade

The Pet Parade staged in the business section Friday afternoon, attracted such a crowd that the street was jammed for a full block and no vehicles were able to get through for nearly an hour. Any type of pet was acceptable and 39 entries, ranging from ponies, dogs, cats, chickens and even hamsters participated. Prizes were awarded for the best trained, skinniest, largest, smallest, most unusual, most useful, least useful pets, etc., and as it worked out, nearly every entry won a prize, each receiving a card, ribbon and cash prize. The Beisecker Lions Club band aided rendered several selections during the judging and received a tremendous ovation.

A home cooked supper was served by the ladies in the basement of the I.O.O.F. Hall Friday evening to over 300 persons, and the facilities of the Hotel dining room and five restaurants were taxed to capacity as well.

Swim Show

The Swim Show staged Friday night at the Vulcan Memorial Swimming Pool drew a more than capacity crowd which enjoyed the band concert by the Beisecker Band and witnessed a demonstration of swimming instruction and water safety which took a group of beginners and followed their instruction until they graduated as senior swimmers, and brought out all the water safety points. Exhibition diving also drew great applause as did three clowns who kept getting into the show. As it started to rain, several novelty numbers were cancelled and a boat placed in the pool. Four swimmers then showed what to do and what not to do in a boat, and what to do if the boat did turn over. A running commentary was given of all events by Don Whiteman, chief instructor at the Pool this season.

THIS AND THAT BY V.A.C.

Dog Days are here again! Don't be misled, dear reader, this is not going to be a weather report. After I roll up my sleeves I am going to write a column of ideas about man's panting, tail-wagging, best friend. You may think that I am in the doghouse, but you are mistaken.

Come to think of it, why shouldn't we have a holiday in August called Dog's Day? We have Mother's Day in May, Father's Day in June, Dominion Day and Independence Day in July, Labor Day in September, Armistice Day in November, Christmas Day in December, New Year's Day in January, Ground-hog's Day in February, St. Patrick's Day in March and Easter Day in April, but though we have been making a passing allusion to Dog Days in August, the government has done nothing to make it official. Over in England they have three days off, which they call Bank Holiday, coming the first week of August. However, I think they should change the name, since my sympathies are canine rather than financial. Also, down in Denton, Texas, Miss Dorothy Babb, spinster, has talked Mayor Mark Hannah into proclaiming August 15th a holiday for Old Maids. Now bachelor ladies are very deserving, I know, but they have nothing that dogs have not. Yes, when you stop to think of it, why shouldn't a holiday in August go to the dogs?

There is a story about a little boy who loved his pet bulldog very much. It followed him to school, and was always on his mind.

One day in language class the teacher asked him to use the expression "bitter end" in a short rhyme.

It took him some time to complete the assignment, but finally he went to the blackboard, where he wrote:

A bulldog chased a pussy cat,
And bitter grief did ascend;
He couldn't catch her, being fat,
And therefore jumped, and bit her end.

There is evidence of the esteem with which we mortals think of our canine friends in the custom of calling ourselves lucky-dogs, gay-dogs, or clever-dogs. Nevertheless, some pessimistic souls seek to enlist the sympathy of others by referring to themselves as underdogs.

A Fido Fable (1951 Version)

Once upon a time, when meat markets still sold horse meat, fish and frozen foods, all the housewives in Vulcan took swimming lessons in the morning at the local pool. One of these ladies had a clever dog, named Fido, whom she was in the habit of sending on errands. Therefore she gave Fido a note to the butcher, and sent him away with a week's allowance to fetch her a fine horse soupbone, while she went for her daily plunge.

Now the butcher was very busy that morning grinding up odd and ends into horseburger, so that poor Fido was longer than usual upon his errand. Therefore when he got back to the swimming pool his mistress had departed.

It was then that Fido made a sad mistake. Thinking that she might be under water, diving for a puck, he decided to take a look into the clear, still water. Holding the bone securely in his mouth, he trotted along the edge of the pool, as he gazed into the mirror-like water. However, instead of seeing his mistress he beheld another dog with a big bone in his mouth. It went everywhere that Fido went. Finally, when he could endure it no longer, he leaped at that other dog. Too late he learned that you cannot take for granted all that you see before your eyes.

To make a short story shorter, the lifeguard came to Fido's rescue, and sent him away home, a wet but wiser poodle. The bone, which was also recovered, made excellent soup, with a slight flavor of chlorine.

MORAL: Don't let your dog horse around with your horse meat.

In the Land of Story Books it was a tale of the Lion and the Mouse, but in Vulcan at the County Fair it was a case of the Lions and the Pets.

A Short Tail
She loved her little poodle dog
With love unmitigated;
And all her neighbors were agog.
It was so educated!

For all the tricks that it could do
Were quite sophisticated,
For it could walk like humans who Are very Spifflicated.

It was no task for it to sit
With front paws elevated,

Those nations, without an adequate food supply coming regularly from domestic farming areas, are not strong nations.

District Census Enumerators Hold Picnic

In spite of cloudy skies about eighty enumerators and friends were entertained by the supervisors and commissioner of the Macleod census enumeration area at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Hoare at their farm on Willow Creek on Sunday afternoon. Hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Fanning of Nanton, Mr. and Mrs. W. Shields of Vulcan, Mr. and Mrs. Hoare, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lamey of Blairmore, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. G. Armstrong, Parkland, Mr. and Mrs. Les Kirton of High River and Mr. and Mrs. W. Loree of Nanton.

Enumerators, who had to prove themselves hardy folk when bucking June roads to take the census, came from as far as Arrowwood and Blairmore and were glad to find that in spite of the heavy rain of the previous evening, roads were good.

A softball game between Enumerators and Enumerators gave the former a one point edge over the latter but this was freely blamed upon Warren Cooper of Nanton, umpire, who, critics said, favored the side with the most pretty girls. As Mr. Cooper occasionally went into his auctioneer's patter and called out "What am I bid?" there was some doubt about strikes and balls.

Mrs. C. Curtis of Arrowwood, Mrs. E. Tyson of Stavey, Mrs. George Loree of Parkland, Miss Lou Shannon and Miss Beverley Green of Calgary did some smart fielding and pitching, quite putting the men in the shade. Murray

Green of Calgary distinguished himself by fielding a low ball and then turning head over heels. He claimed the catch however.

Reg Armstrong went into the pitcher's box prepared to make like the late "Silver" Haynes, winding up in great style and then suddenly descending to his style in delivering an underhand throw which the enumerators found quite unnerving. As he was regularly heckled by Lou Turner and Dr. Ross Upton of Calgary, neither style nor strategy availed him much.

W. H. Allan of Nanton, who was in charge of the scoring, did what he could to save the faces of his fellow enumerators as well as ordering the enumerated folk back to first base "to fill out your farm form" and nominating as best player of the day, Fred Utley of Bellevue.

The game was hurriedly called when Bill Shields announced that the corn was ready and the players hastily abandoned bats for butter, and balls for corn cobs and lunchbaskets. When no one could hold any more lunch the hosts came around with the ice cream and pop and coffee and everyone started all over again.

Then in a final whirl of activity before dark the guests gathered up all the paper plates, corn cobs, dixie cups, swept the floors and emptied the ash trays before going home. As Mr. and Mrs. Hoare said while viewing the clean-up process "Such nice people. We must have you again."

Farmers! Here Is Good News

LOWER YOUR LOADING HEIGHT WITH AN EDBRO HYDRAULIC LIFT

You can lower your loading height because entire hoisting gear is mounted right on the chassis—eliminating sub-frame. Can be used with grain, sand and gravel boxes, combination types, or wooden platforms and racks. Hoists available for body lengths up to 18 ft. and payloads up to 25 tons. No remodelling of your present grain box required.

THE HEART OF THE ENGINE DRIVEN HYDRAULIC HOIST

The patented EDBRO 6 cylinder swash plate pump gives a large volume and smooth flow of oil at high, or low pressures. Simple, and reliable, the ball races reduce friction losses to a bare minimum. The six pistons are case hardened and precision ground. Absolutely no cylinder wear because pump action is supported by thrust races. Pump is combined with power take-off, bolting directly to the truck transmission. All moving parts are immersed in oil.

If you are thinking of installing a hoist for harvest call in at your earliest convenience to allow time for installing these hoists. We have a few in stock but they won't last long.

Throughout the whole world a movement to return to New Testament Christianity surges ahead. Its impact is being felt upon nearly every nation, and even here in Alberta its force is being felt.

There is no need greater in today's world than such a return, when religious bodies and individuals will lay aside their sectarian affiliations, creeds, names, and dogmas for the simplicity and truth of the Gospel of Christ and his church. The teachings of our Lord are diametrically opposed to religious confusion, strife, and division, and the day is far spent when these things ought to be abandoned for the plan and purpose of God. There can never be peace in the world until those who profess allegiance to the Prince of Peace come to peace with one another, and this will never be accomplished while men cleave their human innovations and systems.

This is an invitation to you, turn your attention to the Bible and your effort to the restoration of the authority and church of Christ. There ought to be no book but the Bible, no creed but Christ, no rule of discipline but the teachings of Christ, and no church but Christ's.

COUNTY FAIR RESULTS

square dance demonstrations by two sets of grade three pupils, taught by Miss Hazel Cameron at the Vulcan Public School. The quick pace of their dance and the perfection of their execution drew very hearty rounds of applause. The young dancers included: Murray Robinson, Georgina Woodman, Jimmy Graham, Leone Jones, Ralph Buehler, Sherry Haydamack, Rodney Brodick and Jean LePage in one set and Calvin Rutberg, Aileen Morley, Brian Erickson, Marjorie Willard, Billy Cutforth, Elaine Melnick, David Coe and Marjorie Robinson in the second set.

In the old time square dance competition the same evening, the winning square was comprised of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cutforth, Vulcan; Mr. and Mrs. Leon Coe, of Vulcan; Jackie Howerton of Champion and Miss Mona Middleton of Vulcan and Mr. and Mrs. C. Jones of Mossleigh.

Saturday's program was marred by rain which started Friday evening and continued all day Saturday, cutting down attendance at the Tea and Fashion Show, reducing the supper crowd, and forcing cancellation of the Saturday night's Swim Show.

Owing to intermittent rain all day Saturday the attendance at the Tea and Ladies Fashion Show in the Armouries was only about half that of the previous day. Full reports of both fashion shows are given elsewhere in this issue.

The Saturday night dance again saw the little nine-year-olds give their exhibition of square dancing and as a special added attraction a group from Lethbridge gave a demonstration of modern square dancing under the calling of Ken Dollan of Lethbridge. This was something new here and the large crowd kept calling the visitors back for more.

The old time square dance competition was won by Mr. and Mrs. L. Dunn Sr., Mr. and Mrs. E. Durgan, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Ohler and Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Campbell, all of Vulcan.

At the close of the dance, Martin Gottenberg, president of the Vulcan Lions Club, thanked all those who helped in any way to make this first Vulcan County Fair such a marked success, and then presented Miss Barbara Fletcher, 12, of Brant, the County Princess, with a beautiful diamond studded wrist watch. Prize winners were as follows: Wrist watch, Cliff McAskill, Vulcan; Panda Bear, Keith Healey, Vulcan; Sheets, Pat Roe, Vulcan; 25 piece set Roger's Silverware, J. Doyle of Champion; Woolen blankets, Theodore Holmes of Champion; Table Lamp, Mrs. C. D. Miller, Vulcan; Lawn Chair, B. W. Banks, Vulcan; Slab of bacon, Martin Gottenberg, Vulcan; Pop-up Electric toaster, A. J. Miller, Vulcan; Table and Chair Set, C. S. Bride Wed on Parents' Wedding Anniversary Day

St. Stephen's College Chapel in Edmonton was the setting for an attractive wedding, when Miss Dorothy Margaret Folk, exchanged vows with Mrs. Ernest Daniel Hodgson in a ceremony performed by Rev. Sinclair Reikie of Dawson Creek, brother-in-law of the groom, and Rev. W. T. Young. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dee Folk of Vermillion. The groom the son of Mrs. H. H. Hodgson of Edmonton.

For her wedding day, which also marked her parents' 28th wedding anniversary, the bride chose a gown of ivory brocaded satin fashioned with a Peter Pan collar on the fitted bodice. Her lace edged veil of French illusion fell from a Montilla headpiece. She carried a bouquet of deep red roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. Rob Wilson of Stony Plain was matron of honor and little Margaret Reikie was flower girl.

A gown of aqua taffeta was worn by Mrs. Wilson. She wore a matching bandeau in her hair and carried a colonial bouquet of pink sweetheart roses.

The flower girl wore a yellow taffeta frock and carried a nosegay of pink sweetheart roses.

Mr. Bernard Greene was best man while Mr. Merron Chorney of Grimshaw and Mr. James Craig of Carmangay were the ushers.

During the signing of the register, Mrs. R. Meyers of Lone Rock, Sask. sang "Because" accompanied by Mr. Robin Stewart.

Later a reception for about 65 guests was held in the Metropolitan United Church hall. The bride's table was centred with a three-tiered cake decorated with orange blossoms.

Sharing honors at the tea urns were Mrs. Roy Craig, aunt of the bride and Mrs. Sinclair Reikie, sister of the groom.

The toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. R. Jorgenson and the groom responded.

To receive the guests the bride's mother wore a violet crepe dress with yellow accessories and the groom's mother wore a dusty rose crepe with grey accessories.

Leaving for a honeymoon to Jasper, the bride donned a tomato red dress with silver accessories.

The newlyweds will make their home in Edmonton.

A well attended miscellaneous shower was held on Monday evening in the Grange Dining Room, when some 60 ladies met to honor Mrs. Lenny Fraser, a recent bride elect.

A delightful program was enjoyed with Mrs. Mickey Moore in charge. A duet by Mrs. Fay Smith and Rita, vocal solo by Gladys Anderson, Tap dance by Marilyn Smith, piano solo by Gloria Fraser and community singing was enjoyed with Mrs. Fay Smith at the piano.

The honored guests table had been beautifully decorated in blue, yellow and white, with Mrs. Lenny Fraser, Mrs. J. Fraser and Mrs. Helen Zosack seated at it.

A pretty basket decorated in white and yellow was brought in by Mrs. Korath and Dorothy Brandvold and the presentation was made by Mrs. Korath.

After the many beautiful and useful gifts had been viewed by those present, Mrs. Lenny Fraser very graciously thanked all for her gifts, also those who put on the shower.

A delicious lunch was then enjoyed, bringing a delightful evening to a close.

Women's Association

Fifteen members of the Women's Association and three visitors met with the Misses Hilliard on Wednesday afternoon. The Association had received some nice bundles of remnants from Eatons and Simpsons, these were distributed among the members to be made up for the Fall Bazaar.

A committee of three was chosen to try and get some man, who would take charge of the completion of work on the church basement.

Mrs. I. Nelson won the hostess prize and also received a birthday gift. The next meeting on Sept. 7 will be held at Mrs. Vilas Teskey. The hostesses then served a delicious lunch.

After spending their honeymoon in the States, Mr. and Mrs. Greene plan to make their home on his farm east of town.

Isn't it peculiar that the human brain begins to function from the moment you are born, improves as you grow older, then stops completely when you stand up to talk? England's king is not allowed to enter the House of Commons. In its 33 centuries, the city of Jerusalem has endured more than 20 sieges and blockades.
